To Rome, Sri Lanka and India

Friday, November 24, 2017
The following post has been contributed by Arthur Peters, Executive Director of ShareLife and the Development Office of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

We are blessed in the Archdiocese of Toronto to have the support of our parishioners toward the work of the church, not only locally, but also in the greater world. Our parish communities, when asked, respond generously toward various second collections for international development work, as well as humanitarian relief efforts.

In 2014, I had the chance to visit the Philippines for two weeks to see the recovery efforts after the typhoon, as well as to visit some of the projects supported through our Pastoral Mission Fund (a ShareLife funded agency) and Mission Co-operative programs. This gave us the chance to see firsthand the activity of the Catholic Church across the globe.

During his visit to the Philippines in 2014, Peters (in back of group) visited a ShareLife-funded catechism class run by the Sisters of Our Lady of Carmel.

I am about to do this again.

Starting on November 27, I will be travelling to Rome, followed by a short visit to Sri Lanka, and then an extended trip to India, to visit projects that are supported through the international programs of the Archdiocese of Toronto. During this time, I will be visiting seventeen different projects that are carried out by Catholic dioceses or religious orders. This will be a great opportunity to see how we bring the hands of Christ to those in need across the world.

I encourage you to follow the ShareLife blog, through our website – www.sharelife.org – during this time. I'll be sharing reflections of my experiences, as well as photos of some of the work that we have supported through our contributions to second collections that take place in our parishes.

Join me as we visit the work of the Catholic Church in Rome, Sri Lanka and India! by Torres, Denise at 10:41 AM
