"For we are to God the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing." (2 Corinthians 2:15)

Expensive Fragrant Oil

Luna took her little daughter Mariam to see her best friend Lucy. As the little girl glimpsed a beautiful bottle containing fragrant oil, she left her mum and ran towards it. Her mother called out to her in fear that she might break the bottle, but Lucy snatched it away and said apologetically, "My husband got this for me from Paris last summer for our wedding anniversary." When Luna did not pay attention to this, Lucy told her, "Do you know what brand this is?" "No," responded Luna, "It is the most famous fragrant oil in the world, it costs ...". Luna was shocked to hear the price, she said, "Could it really cost that much!!".

Lucy: "This is how much it costs duty free, because he bought it from the Paris airport".

Luna: "How could he pay this much?!"

Lucy: "Because of his love and appreciation of me."

Luna: "May I smell it?"

Lucy: "Sorry it's finished. I am only keeping the empty bottle." Luna attempted to mask a sigh, but Lucy noticed and asked her, "What's the sigh for Luna, are you upset that he paid a lot of money for a bottle of fragrant oil that I have used up and all that is left is this beautiful bottle?"

Luna responded, "No, Lucy, you deserve much more than this. But I fear that I may be like this beautiful empty bottle of fragrant oil but without fragrance. Yes, I carry the name of Christ, I know many of the words of the Holy Bible, I attend spiritual worship, but I ask myself, do I carry the sweet fragrance of Christ.

The fragrant oil of this world is used up and finished, but the sweet fragrance of Christ increases inside as well as outside of us."

The conversation turned around from the fragrant oil of this world to the wonderful fragrant oil of Christ. At the end of the visit, Luna stood up and prayed, "We thank You God for making us a heavenly bottle of fragrant oil, may Your fragrance in us spread so that we and others can smell it without end, but may it increase with all the beauty that You poured in us. Grant me not to be a bottle that is just beautiful on the outside, fill my life with You, You are the reason behind my riches, beauty and sweetness. Amen.
