Pope's intention for this month of February:

Say "No" to corruption: That those who have material, political or spiritual power may resist the lure of corruption.

2nd Sunday of Lent: Lenten Graces

Let us ensure that the Cross marks the stages of our Lenten journey in order to understand ever better the seriousness of sin and the value of the sacrifice by which the Saviour has saved us all. Angelus, March 12, 2017

Prayer: Heavenly Father, you show us the meaning of life in the form of the cross. The cross reveals your love reaching down to us and also shows us the love that must reach outward to the whole world. I know that my sin led to this sacrifice of your son. And my sins continue to get in the way of this love that you share with infinite generosity. As part of this beautiful season of Lent, help me to understand how my sins get in the way of the sacrifice I must make of my life in imitation of your son. Give me the grace, I pray, to leave my sins behind. Amen. (Taken from the Joy of Lent - Pope Francis.)

"For the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19:10)

There was an old woman in a town and her financial situation was not good and it was hard for her to afford her needs. A good man heard about her and felt sorry for her, so he decided to help. This kind man asked about this woman and went to her house and knocked on the door, but no one opened. When he waited for a long time, he thought that the woman is not at home.

The man waited for a long time and was annoyed because he could not help the poor woman. However, one day, he met the old woman, and told her that he had visited her many times to help but every time he stood outside there was no answer. When the woman heard the man saying that, she shouted and said: was it you who stands outside and knocks at the door? He replied: yes. She then said: every time you were there I thought you were the landlord who was asking me to pay the rent, and since I cannot afford it, I was afraid to open the door.

My friend, what the women has done to the man who wanted to help her is the same as many of us do with God. When God knocks on our hearts, we think He is asking us for things, but this is not true. God gives and saves which was lost, and He does not ask about what you owe but gives you more to pay your debts.

So, are you going to open to Him in these holy days of Lent. Let us live the life of repentance, confession and prayers. Amen.
