 - b) Lenten Reflection on the Divine Mercy.
 - c) Reflection on the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.
- Presenter: Norm Trimble.

Message from the Pastor: I personally encourage you to attend this reflection. The Divine Mercy message has changed my life and called me to be where I am today. I hope it will touch your life too!

Pope's intention for this month of February:

Formation of spiritual discernment: That the Church may appreciate the urgency of formation in spiritual discernment, both on the personal and communitarian levels.

3rd Sunday of Lent: Everyday Influences

It is essential that we first free our-selves from the corruptive degeneration of worldly influences contrary to Christ and to the Gospel; and this purification never ends, it must be done continuously; it must be done every day! Angelus, Feb. 5, 2017

Prayer: Heavenly Father, it seems like I can never fully escape the influences of the world around me. So often, those voices encourage me to choose myself and my own desires over the needs of those around me. Even when I know I shouldn't, I listen to those voices and I turn away. When I turn to you, however, you freely reach out to wash me, making me new again and again. Today, Lord Jesus, free me from the corruption of worldly voices that keep me from loving. Tomorrow, please help me again! Amen.

"Giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." (Ephesians 5:20)

THANKSGIVING

A 10 minutes film was announced as "Best short film". It was decided to show it for free to the public in cinemas, so crowds flocked to watch it. The film started with a scene of a ceiling in a bedroom, this scene lasted for 8 minutes without changing. The audience began to complain, some thought it was a waste of time, most people started to leave. Suddenly the camera moved lower towards the floor where a child with special needs laid on a bed. He was paralyzed due to the severing of his spinal cord from his small thin body. This quote was written at the end of the film: "We showed you only 8 minutes of the view that this child sees daily during all his waking hours, you complained and could not bear to watch it. Therefore, thank God, and be grateful for every second of your life that He has granted you". Amen!
