Many Parishioners ask, What is so special about "Divine Mercy" Sunday?

On "Divine Mercy" Sunday, the eighth and final day of the Octave of Easter an "Ocean of Graces" is poured out upon all who turn to the merciful heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ, flowing from the Paschal Mystery of his suffering, death, and resurrection. Yet, even today so many Catholics are still unaware of these extraordinary graces, even though the "Feast of Divine Mercy" is being celebrated as a universal feast of the Church since the year 2000.

The History of the message and devotion to The "Divine Mercy" began in Poland through the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska a Polish nun from the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. In the 1930's, in obedience to her spiritual director, Father Michael Sopocko, Sister Faustina wrote a diary recording the revelations she was receiving about God's mercy.

Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to the "Divine Mercy" as revealed to her had begun to spread.

During the war years of 1939 - 1945, this devotion grew in strength as people throughout Europe turned to the merciful Saviour for comfort and hope.

Through the efforts of the Archbishop of Krakow, Karol Cardinal Wojtyla (the late Holy Father, Pope St. John Paul II) a study of the life and virtues of Sister Faustina was begun in 1965. Its successful outcome led to the inauguration of her Beatification in 1968. Pope John Paul II continued to support and have special interest in her and to the cause of Divine Mercy.

In 1981, he published an encyclical letter entitled Dives in Misericordia (Rich in Mercy), in which he speaks of Christ as the "incarnation of mercy ... the inexhaustible source of mercy". He goes on to emphasize that "Christ's messianic program, the program of mercy" must become "the program of His people, the program of the Church."

In January 2000 Pope John Paul II proclaimed Sister Faustina as Saint Faustina.

To be continued next week when you can read more about "Divine Mercy". Prepared by Deacon David Whall.
