Bible Trivia for Youth!

Answer: Why Jesus is called the good Shepherd not any Shepherd? And why he calls himself I AM? People are sometimes good, but God is always perfectly Good. He calls himself I AM, since Jesus is one with the Father - God. And I AM is the name of God.

Question: What is grafting, & how it relates to Jesus and us? $5 for correct answers. Respond only to this email: stpatrikstoel@gmail.com

On Church Music

According to the Church teaching in Sacrosanctum Concilium, music is "more holy in proportion as it is more closely connected with the liturgical action, whether it adds delight to prayer, fosters unity of minds, or confers greater solemnity upon the sacred rites." (112)

(A) new series in Around the Arch diocese that will profile several organists and musicians from our four pastoral regions within the Archdiocese... In this edition, John Paul Farahat, a seasoned organist and musician ... is featured...

Why should the everyday Catholic have an appreciation for the organ and/or anyone who plays?

The Second Vatican Council, in the 1963 document Sacrosanctum Concilium, spoke beautifully of the importance of the organ in the life of the Church. Indeed, the organ is uniquely equipped to support congregational singing. Because of the way organs are built, the sound does not dissipate or decay until the organist lets go of the keys. So it's very natural for sustaining singing, whether it be with the softest melody or the most exuberant and joyous chords. Not only that, but the huge range of the colours in the sound of the instrument - that is something very special, and uniquely different in every pipe organ...
