Vatican News: New Young Saint for us Carlo Acutis

(a life offered for Jesus, the Church)

Cardinal Angelo Becciu, Prefect of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, told Vatican News' Benedetta Capelli that a date for the beatification had been set. But it was agreed with the Bishop of Assisi that it would be moved to October 10.

"It is hoped that more people will be able to attend the ceremony at that time; among other things, it will take place just two days before the anniversary of his death, because he died on October 12, 2006. So, we agreed on this date. Hopefully, people can come, otherwise many will be able to follow the celebration via streaming", he said. Carlo Acutis was born in London in 2006 to Italian parents. As a young boy, he moved with them to Milan, where he lived before succumbing to leukemia at the age of 15. The computer genius will be beatified in Assisi, Perugia in October after a Brazilian boy was cured from a rare disease due to his intercession.

A boy of exemplary faith

Cardinal Becciu described Carlo Acutis' exemplary faith as an example for young people, and for all of us.

"He was a little boy when he fell in love with the Eucharist, then he also turned his devotion to Our Lady". The Cardinal went on to say that he used his talents to spread the faith. "He created a computer project on the themes of faith; he had a site on Eucharistic miracles. So, he lived his faith to the fullest".

Cardinal Becciu said the words of this young man are also striking. "He said, 'I want to offer all my sufferings for the Lord, for the Pope, and for the Church. I don't want to do purgatory; I want to go straight to Heaven'. At 15! A little boy who talks like that strikes us and I think it encourages everyone not to joke with our faith, but to take it seriously".

Zeal for the Lord

Speaking to Vatican News's Eugenio Bonanata, Carlos's mother Antonia Salzano said he was "considered a computer genius because he knew logarithms, he knew how to make programs and read university texts on these topics. But what did he do? He didn't use these media to chat, have fun, or anything like that. His zeal for the Lord and his love for the knowledge of Jesus prompted him to make use his talents to create a website on Eucharistic miracles and an exhibit on the same subject that has traveled around the world". She said that Carlo "knew that Jesus is really present in the Eucharist, but he realized that people need help to get closer to the Lord and especially to understand the importance of the sacraments".

This Sunday's Gospel: Matthew 21.33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

"When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way.

"Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.' So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

"Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'?"

"Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom."
