This Sunday's Gospel: Matthew 22.15-21

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"

But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius.

Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

Laudato Si'

On June 18, 2015, Pope Francis' encyclical "Laudato Si', On Care for Our Common Home" was formally released.

Archbishop of Toronto, Cardinal Thomas Collins, commented on the teaching letter: "The central theme in this letter to all people of goodwill remains: 'What kind of world do you want to leave to those who come after us?' The encyclical reminds us that we have been entrusted with an abundance of gifts from God to nurture and use responsibly as good stewards. We are also reminded that our actions have ramifications, often impacting the most vulnerable in our society. We must never forget the marginalized among us. In the vast and diverse archdiocese in which we reside, there is much for us to consider and act upon. My prayer is that the reflections offered by Pope Francis through Laudato Si' will give us pause as we consider what each one of us can do, inspired by our faith, to care for creation and all those whom we encounter."

ENCYCLICAL LETTER LAUDATO SI' OF POPE FRANCIS ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME	THE TITLE Taken from St. Francis' prayer: Canticle of the Creatures. It reminds us that the earth "is like a sister with whom we share our life." 1 "This sister now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her." 2	Laudato Si' is a call to conversion and action, an invitation to change direction by taking on the task of caring for our common home.
QUESTION AT THE HEART OF THE ENCYCLICAL: "What kind of world do you want to leave to those who come after us?" 160		MAIN THEMES <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. the relationship between the poor and the fragility of the planet 2. the conviction that everything in the world is connected 3. the critique of new paradigms and forms of power derived from technology 4. the call to seek other ways of understanding the economy and progress 5. the value proper to each creature 6. the human meaning of ecology 7. the need for direct and honest debate 8. the serious responsibility of international and local policy 9. the throwaway culture and the proposal of a new lifestyle
Concern for the environment is no longer optional. A person of faith should show even more responsibility regarding creation, which is a gift from God.	INCLUDE IN YOUR EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE: How have I lived in communion with all creatures and with nature?	Archdiocese of Toronto www.archtoronto.org SOURCE: www.vatican.va
	THE MESSAGE "Humanity still has the ability to work together in building our common home." 13 We are capable of rising above ourselves, "choosing again what is good, and making a new start." 205
