Meet Don Alberto, Italy's new YouTube sensation

By Hannah Brockhaus

Rome, Italy, Mar 2, 2021 / 04:00 am MT (CNA).- Fr. Alberto Ravagnani didn't set out to make a viral video. He was just trying to find a way to stay connected to the kids who attend his parish's youth ministries after Italy went into lockdown because of the coronavirus pandemic in March 2020.

The 27-year-old priest had never edited a video before and he rarely posted on social media.

"It was an experiment. I wanted to make something nice and useful to fill these two weeks -- what I thought the time of closure would be - but the closure was extended," Ravagnani told CNA in an interview.

The priest's first YouTube video, uploaded on March 14, 2020, and titled "Praying in the time of coronavirus," quickly rose in views as it was shared across social media and messaging apps.

His second, about how "10 minutes of silence can change your day," was uploaded the following day and has been viewed more than 50,000 times. Seeing that the videos were reaching people, he decided to continue.

"I didn't expect all of this. Also because it wasn't the objective, I wasn't trying to get a lot of views," he explained. But when it happened, the priest said that he realized it could be a way to communicate with young people in a creative way -- and he had fun making them.

All of Ravagnani's videos -- to date 46 -- have gained tens of thousands of views (several have hundreds of thousands).

They touch on topics as diverse as the existence of God, video games, happiness, and why to pray the rosary.

In the videos, Don Alberto (as he's known in Italy) speaks quickly and has an engaging energy, which is coupled with fast-paced editing. And he does not deploy euphemisms, using language familiar to today's adolescents and teens in each of his frenetic videos.

For example, a seven-minute video on pornography, uploaded to YouTube in October 2020, is his most-watched, with more than 396,000 views. To Read the full article please click on the link below: <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/meet-don-alberto-italys-new-youtube-sensation-15813>

St. Dominic entrusted this Marian icon to nuns in Rome 800 years ago

By Courtney Mares

Rome Newsroom, Feb 27, 2021 / 06:00 am MT (CNA).- Eight hundred years ago, a barefoot St. Dominic carried an icon of the Virgin Mary across Rome to entrust the Marian image to a new community of cloistered nuns, who have safeguarded the icon within the walls of their convent to this day.

The icon, known as the "Advocata," can be found today in a small chapel on Rome's highest hill, in the Church of Santa Maria del Rosario on Monte Mario.

As St. Dominic carried the limewood icon on the night of Sunday, February 28, 1221, two cardinals delegated by Pope Honorius III accompanied the founder of the Dominican Order, and 42 nuns followed in procession behind on their way to their new convent.
