Praying for the Souls in Purgatory

Praying for the souls in Purgatory is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy. These souls long for God but they need to be purified of their sins before they can enter Heaven. It is us, those on earth, who can pray for these souls. It is our prayers, which help these souls to move from purgatory into Heaven. In Heaven, these souls will be praying for us. Never underestimate the power of prayer. The dead need our prayers. It does not matter when a person died, recently or long ago in the past. Our prayers always help the dead.

As Catholics, we believe in the Communion Saints – those in Heaven, those in Purgatory, and those on Earth. All three groups are connected. The ones on earth have a responsibility and an obligation to pray for one another and for those in Purgatory. The Saints in Heaven are role models and intercessors for those on earth. The souls in Purgatory cannot pray for themselves, but we, the ones on earth, can pray for them. When these souls reach Heaven, these souls will be praying for us. Everyone needs prayers. The dead need prayers! The living need prayers!

Prayers for All Souls

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And let the perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

World Day of the Poor November 14/2021

Vatican City- Pope Francis plans to prepare for his celebration of the World Day of the Poor y meeting with and listening to some 500 poor people making a pilgrimage to Assisi, Italy. Two days later, on the World Day of the Poor, the pope will celebrate a Mass in St. Peter's Basilica with about 2,000 poor people and those who assist them, the Vatican said. Everyone will be offered a hot meal after Mass, The Assisi pilgrims, assisted by a French and several Italian Catholic charitable organizations, will go home from Assisi with a new backpacks contain winter sweaters, scarves, hats and jackets as well as fabric anti COVID-19 masks. The Pontifical Council for Promoting New Evangelization, which promotes and organizes the World Day of the Poor, said Pope Francis will pay particular attention this year to 40 group homes that care for children or children and their mothers, delivering a two-month supply of personal care products and food, especially baby food. With donations from a grocery store chain and past manufacturer, it said, the group homes and local parishes and charities will share five tone of past, one ton of rice, two tons of tomato puree, 1000 liters of oil and 3,000 liters of milk. The Vatican also prepared 5,000 kits filled with common over the counter medications for distribution. An Italian financial services company has made a donation that will allow the office of the papal almoner to help 500 families pay their gas and utility bills, the council said. It is my hope that the celebration of the World Day of the Poor, now in its fifth year, will grow in our local Churches and inspire a movement of evangelization that meets the poor personally wherever they may be. We cannot wait for the poor to knock on our door; we need urgently to reach them in their homes, in hospitals and nursing homes, on the streets and in the dark.
