Feast of St. Martha – July 29th

“Jesus loved Martha and Mary and Lazarus.” This unique statement in John's gospel tells us of the special relationship Jesus had with Martha, her sister and her brother. Many of us find it easy to identify with Martha in the story Luke tells. Martha welcomes Jesus and his disciples into her home and immediately goes to work to serve them. Hospitality is paramount in the Middle East and Martha believed in its importance. Imagine her frustration when her sister Mary ignores the rule of hospitality and Martha's work in order to sit and listen to Jesus. Instead of speaking to her sisters, she asks Jesus to intervene. Jesus' response is not unkind, which gives us an idea of his affection for her. He observes that Martha is worried about many things that distract her from really being present to him. He reminds her that there is one thing that is truly important—listening to him. And that is what Mary has done. In Martha, we see ourselves, worried and distracted by all we have to do in the world and forgetting to spend time with Jesus. It is, however, comforting to note that Jesus loved her just the same. The next visit shows how well Martha learned this lesson. She is grieving the death of her brother with a house full of mourners when she hears that Jesus has just come to the area. She gets up and leaves the guests, leaves her mourning, and goes to meet him. Her conversation with Jesus shows her faith and courage. She tells Jesus without a doubt that she believes in Jesus' power, in the resurrection and most all that Jesus is the Son of God. Jesus tells her that he is the resurrection and the life and then goes on to raise her brother from the dead.
