St. Paul Feast July 3/24

St. Thomas -July 3/24

The Church celebrates the Feast of Saint Thomas the Apostle on July 3rd. Though Saint's feast days are typically celebrated on the date of their death, Saint Thomas' exact date of death is unknown. The date of July 3rd was chosen to commemorate the date his relics were transferred to Edessa (in modern Turkey), possibly from South India, where Christians claim Thomas as the Apostle who evangelized them.

Who was Saint Thomas the Apostle?

Saint Thomas is one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus chosen by Him to evangelize the world and pastor His flock (the Church) after His Ascension to the Father. This formal use of Apostle distinguishes the Twelve, and later St. Paul chosen by the Resurrected Christ, from all others – such as those who fulfill the apostolic office today (the bishops), the disciples who followed Jesus in His time and ours, and all those who accomplish works of evangelization down through history, "apostles" in a generic sense.

Why was St. Thoms called "Doubting Thomas"

St. Thomas earned the name "Doubting Thomas" for his disbelief in the Resurrection of Christ. After Christ rose from the dead, He appeared to all the Apostles except for Thomas. We can read the account where the Apostles went to tell Thomas what they had seen in the Gospel of John.

So, the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe."

Eight days later, His disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and my God!"

(John 20:25-28)

Do you really believe that it was by chance that this chosen disciple was absent, then came and heard, heard and doubted, doubted and touched, touched and believed? It was not by chance but in God's providence. In a marvelous way, God's mercy arranged that the disbelieving disciple, in touching the wounds of his master's body, the faith of the other disciples. As he touches Christ and is won over to belief, every doubt is cast aside and our faith is strengthened. – St. Gregory the Great
