Thank you from Totus Tuus!

A heartfelt thank you to our parish community for your prayers, and support throughout this year's Totus Tuus camp. We are especially grateful to the parishioners who joined us for our potluck celebration, where we shared in the joy of a wonderful week of faith-filled learning.

Our missionaries, volunteers, and youth had a tremendous week learning, praying, playing and growing together in Christ. Through our Kingdom Quest, we were reminded of the beautiful truth that we are all beloved children of God, called to become the people He created us to be.

Thank you for helping make Totus Tuus such a joyful and faith-filled experience. Please continue to keep our young people and missionaries in your prayers.

July 25: Saint James, Apostle—Feast

Patron Saint of blacksmiths, druggists, equestrians, hatmakers, laborers, pilgrims, knights, soldiers, tanners, veterinarians, and several countries and cities, including Santiago de Compostela, Spain

While the Twelve Apostles included two named James, today we honor James the Greater, the brother of John, the Gospel writer. Their mother is believed to be Salome, identified as the Blessed Virgin Mary's sister. If Salome and Mary were siblings, then James and John were Jesus' cousins.

Tradition holds that Andrew and James the Greater followed Jesus after John the Baptist said, "Behold, the Lamb of God" (John 1:35-51).

Tradition holds that Andrew and James the Greater followed Jesus after John the Baptist said, "Behold, the Lamb of God" (John 1:35-51). Matthew's and Mark's Gospels record James following Jesus after He called James and John as they mended their nets (Mark 1:19-20). The family likely had means. The father, Zebedee, might have employed other fishermen besides his sons. The mother, Salome, is believed to be one of the women who supported Jesus and the disciples. John might partly have been entrusted with the care of Jesus' mother because he had the resources to do so.

Saint James, Jesus called you a Son of Thunder because of your zeal and temper. God infused those natural qualities with temperance and courage so that you could give supreme witness to your Lord. Please pray that I will have your courage and zeal, laying down my life in witness to Jesus' glory. Saint James, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
