The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a title that has been recognized and celebrated by the Catholic Church and Eastern Orthodoxy. It is rooted in the Scriptures and the tradition of the Church, with Pope Pius XII formally establishing the feast in 1954. The title signifies Mary's role as the mother of God and her intercessory power, as well as her preeminent perfection. The title is also seen in the ancient prayer Sub Tuum Praesidium, which addresses Mary as Holy Mother of God and asks for her protection.

The Queenship of Mary is a share in Jesus' kingship, and she is honored as Queen of Heaven and Earth, of angels and saints.
